PRACTICING
THE PRESENCE

Acts 17: 24-28 Msg

The God who made the world and everything in it, this Master of sky and land, doesn't live in custom-made shrines or need the human race to run errands for him, as if he couldn't take care of himself. He makes the creatures; the creatures don't make him. Starting from scratch, he made the entire human race and made the earth hospitable, with plenty of time and space for living so we could seek after God, and not just grope around in the dark but actually find him. He doesn't play hide-and-seek with us. He's not remote; he's near. We live and move in him, can't get away from him! One of your poets said it well: 'We're the God-created.'

2. Daar is dinge in ons lewe wat dit moeilik maak om God raak te sien

John of the Cross

God is always present but we are not always present to God.

3. Wat kan ons doen om meer bewus te wees van God in ons lewens?

Brother Lawrence

...it seems like a world of trouble to bring oneself into the consciousness of God's presence. Yet it might be so simple. Is it not quicker and easier just to do our common business wholly for the love of him?
