

Through the eyes of Christ : Worship

Hughes is a prolific songwriter best known for songs such as "Here I am to worship", "Happy Day" and "Beautiful One". At the age of 18, feeling a call to write songs, he spent a year in South Africa working with kids and leading worship while honing his God-given gift. He began his music career with Soul Survivor in 1997 and has been involved with Soul Survivor events around the world. In 2005 he moved to Holy Trinity Brompton (HTB), the home of Alpha International. He is worship pastor at HTB and heads up the Alpha International worship resource, Worship Central. Since launching in 2006 Worship Central has ministered to tens of thousands of people at training events on three continents. Hughes is married to Rachel and they have three children.
