

Die lewensbeker ...
van Joy

9 As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love.

10 If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love.

11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.

12 My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you.

13 Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.

14 You are my friends if you do what I command.

15 I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you.

16 You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit – fruit that will last. Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in my name.

17 This is my command: Love each other.

John 15:9-17 NIV

16 Be joyful always;
17 pray continually;
18 give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 NIV

How much joy is there in your cup of life?

It may be that God has an eternal appetite of infancy, for we have sinned and grown old and our Father is younger than we.

Chesterton

John 15:11 NIV

We enter the joy of God when we begin to go on a journey with Jesus.

12 My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you.

13 Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.

John 15:12 & 13 NIV

We enter the joy of God ... when we begin to give ourselves to those around us.

16 Be joyful always ...

1 Thessalonians 5:16 NIV

We enter the joy of God ... when we consciously choose a life of joy.
